

UT Remembers

The University of Texas at Austin

an annual day of remembrance honoring members of The University of Texas at Austin community who died in the previous year

---

Friday, April 21, 2023

9:00–9:45 a.m. Lowering of the Flags Ceremony
Main Mall

9:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. Hospitality Suite
Lee Jamail Academic Room, Main Building (Room 212)
(Available to families and friends while on campus.)

10–11 a.m. Informational Session on Grief
Lee Jamail Academic Room, Main Building (Room 212)
(Discussion on normal stages of grief, coping and remembering.)

11 a.m. Lunch
There are numerous opportunities for UT Remembers guests to enjoy lunch in and around the UT campus. A list of nearby eateries will be available in the hospitality suite. Some guests may choose to visit an iconic Austin food venue that was a favorite of those being remembered.

2–3 p.m. UT Remembers Service
Tower Garden
(In case of inclement weather, the service will be relocated to the Perry Ballroom in the Texas Union.)

Dusk Darkened Tower
The Tower will be darkened to honor those being remembered.

UTRemembers.utexas.edu

---

UT Remembers is designed to bring together families, friends, colleagues, and co-workers who have experienced the loss of a UT student or a current or retired faculty or staff member. UT Remembers is a program of UT Cares, a campus-wide committee formed in 1996 for the purpose of providing assistance and support to The University of Texas at Austin community in times of trauma or loss.