UT Remembers

The University of Texas at Austin

Today I am remembering

_____

Please share your memories of those who are being honored by writing about what made them special—a message, an observation or a farewell thought.

Your remembrance will be introduced into the university's permanent archives which are housed in the Briscoe Center for American History, located in Sid Richardson Hall, Unit 2, on The University of Texas at Austin campus.

You may mail the document to: The University of Texas at Austin, University Events & Experience, MAI 134, Austin, Texas 78712.
